

It's a new school year

Now is the time to join KHSJA!

Become a member for 2009-2010

The Kentucky High School Journalism Association is dedicated to assisting journalism teachers and their students. KHSJA membership includes all forms of print and electronic journalism at your school. Annual membership is just $50 per school. KHSJA, now in its 13th year, offers teacher and student workshops, a statewide contest, a statewide convention with top-notch speakers and breakout sessions. KHSJA was founded by the Kentucky Press Association to be an advocate for all forms of high school journalism in Kentucky. Complete the membership form and mail by Oct. 30, 2009, with a $50 check to: KHSJA, 101 Consumer Lane, Frankfort, KY 40601. Or if you want to pay by credit card, call or e-mail KHSJA administrator David Greer at dgreer@kypress.com and you can fax the membership registration form to (502) 226-3867.
